NOVEMBER MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT.

Hello and Welcome to the October / November edition of the By Hand and Eye.

Well another AGM has been held, though it has to be said that this one was very different to any that have been held before. Firstly it was held as a Zoom type meeting with people telecommuting into the meeting. Also with the exception of David King no Life Members were in attendance. This was very sad, but understandable in the circumstances. However all the necessary business was conducted.

I would like to express my personal thanks to Ian Cocks, Tony Ney, Ken Sullivan and David King for all their work and support over the last year. I would also like to thank the committee members from the various Regions/Clubs for their support. It makes the job much easier when you have willing and dedicated people helping and supporting you. With the usual people re-elected it means that your Guild has had very stable leadership over the last couple of years and this has been a great advantage over the last ten or so months. I think no one would disagree if I said that this has been a most challenging period for the country, and in turn the Guild and Regions/Clubs.

Again my very sincere thanks to everyone, including you, the members. Without you the Regions/Clubs and by extension The Guild, could not and would not exist.

I would like to finish by wishing everyone regardless of religious persuasion all the very best for the coming holidays. I hope that you will be happy and safe, and I hope that you will consider making and entering something into the Royal Easter Show in 2021.

I look forward to seeing you all in 2021.

So, until next time, to quote a previous Guild President "Keep the Lathes turning", and have fun and PLEASE, look after yourselves and each other.

Philip McLeod

(PHILIP MCLEOD)
PRESIDENT

FROM THE HISTORY FILES

A DAY OF LASTS - 11 NOVEMBER 1918

It is 1030 11 NOV 2020 as I sit to write this. As an ex-serviceman this day is always a day where I spend some time remembering my old friends and comrades. There is a special bond between us, one that only service people usually get to experience. This day is also the day that I think about my Great Uncle Kenneth McLeod, killed at Ypres in Belgium with no known grave, and of my wife's Great Grandfather William Wahlers Wilson, killed at Fromelles France also with no known grave.

I started thinking about the significance of the day, and the time, and wondered what happened to the soldiers on that day. A small amount of research and it became obvious that for the soldiers it was just another day of noise, fire and death right up to the end.

The instrument of the Armistice was signed at 0530 on 11 November 1918 in a railway carriage in the forest of Compiègne. But would not take effect until 1100. So the war continued.

Therefore, for this article I decided to talk about the "lasts". However some overview first. World War 1 started on 28 July 1914 and ended at 1100 on 11 November 1918. The front line in Europe ran from the coast near Ostend in Belgium to Belfort near the Swiss border. By the end of the war there were 18,357,000 military killed or wounded and another 4,000,000 civilians killed or wounded.

Australia suffered 60,000 killed and 156,000 wounded, gassed or captured.

It is interesting to note that NO soldier is officially listed as Killed in Action on 11 November 1918, though 11,000 were killed on that day and their grave stones indicate the same.

The last Australian killed in the Great War is not known for certain. The Australians were resting in a rear area on 11 November. However Australians were still serving on the front lines. It could have been a Tunneler attached to the 4th British Army, or an Australian pilot, one of three flying and shot down over the front lines that day.

The last British soldier killed in action was Private George Edwin Ellison killed by a sniper at 0930 near Mons.

The last French soldier killed was Augustin Trebuchon shot and killed at 1045, (15 minutes before the Armistice came into effect).

The last Canadian killed was George Price killed at 1058, (2 minutes before the end).

The last American killed was Henry Nicholas John Gunter shot while on patrol at 1059, (1 minute before the end of hostilities).

There is no clear last German killed, though many believe it was Lieutenant Tomas who died in a hail of bullets during a final American attack on 11 November.

The last town captured on 11 November was Mons, by the Canadians. Mons was also the first town the Germans captured at the start of the war and were the first British soldier died, (John Henry Parr).

The last Artillery shell was fired by Battery E, 11th Field Artillery USA. At 1055 they loaded a 95 pound shell into the breach of their favourite 155mm canon named "Calamity Jane". The officer watched the second hand on his watch as it moved to be exactly on 12. He signaled the crew and they fired the shell. It was exactly 1100 on 11 November 1918. This shot signaled the end of the war.

Of course this was not the end of the dying. Many would die later from physical and mental wounds. They should all be remembered and honored.

LEST WE FORGET!

A SPECIAL REQUEST FROM ONE OF OUR FOUNDERS

Alex has received a request from George Hatfield. George, (Life member of the Guild, my woodturning TAFE teacher, the designer of the Guild's logo and now retired) that he is looking for a HELIGRIND tool developed and marketed by John Crawford.

This is an early woodturning chisel grinding tool that many turners of our era might remember from shows and as a supplier of the wide 8" grinding wheels, pen kits etc....

George is writing an article using a round cross-section scraping tool and he is looking for the Heligrind tool. If anyone has an old one and is not using it he would like to buy it.

The tool is a precursor of current similar tools such as Gorgi Armen's Unijig and the NZ Woodcut True-Gring jig and a variety of other makers.

Thanks in advance

Alex Bendeli

*****

The late John Crawford used to sell the "Heligrind" tool sharpening jig.

It is a jig used to grind the cutting edge of a detail gouges to a lady finger sharp.

If anybody has an old one and is not using it, I would like to buy it.

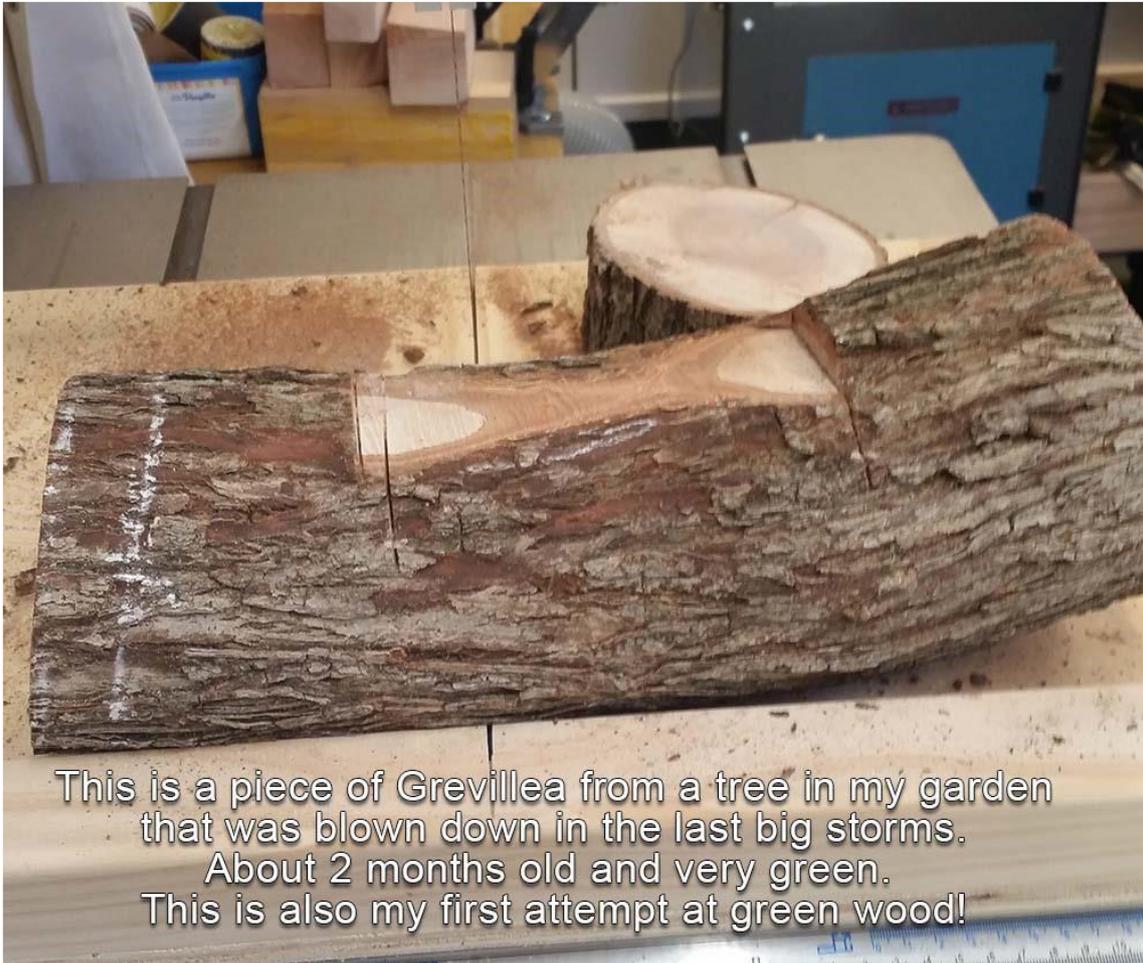

I can be contacted on 0432 829 747

George Hatfield

IF ANYONE CAN HELP WITH THIS PLEASE CONTACT GEORGE – THE ED.

FROM PAUL MENAI REGION.

Paul has shown us the difficulties involved in using green material - he shows us how he finally won - finished the piece (using lots of glue and determination).

This is a piece of Grevillea from a tree in my garden that was blown down in the last big storms. About 2 months old and very green. This is also my first attempt at green wood!

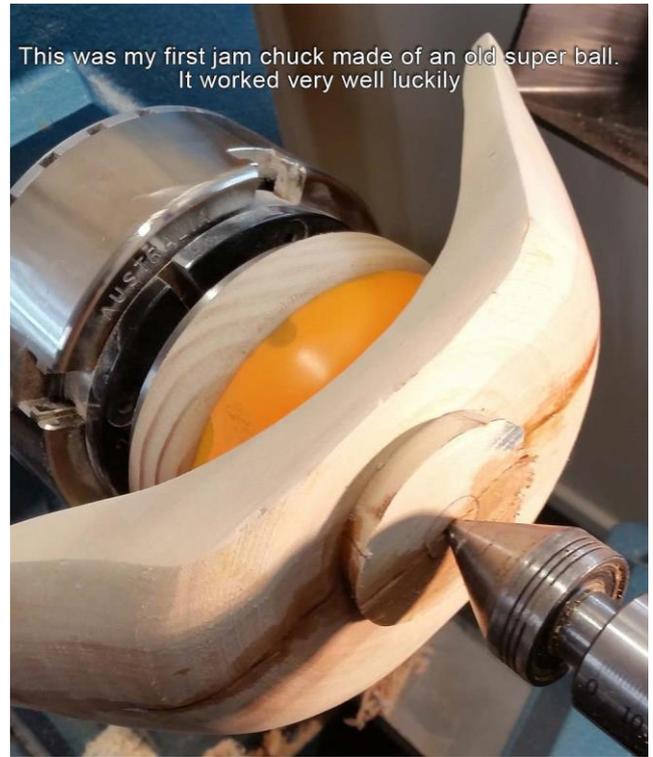

As this is a face plate challenge that is what I used. I think I would have used a wood worm normally.

After creating the tenon, I left it overnight on the lathe. It had no cracks at this point. This is what it looked like the next day. I decided to leave it here and start a new job.

After finishing the bowl, I thought I might as well try and finish the original piece and see what happens. I applied lots of CA glue to the cracks and carried on.

This was my first jam chuck made of an old super ball. It worked very well luckily

Another angle. It must be OK as my wife said she want's to keep it

Paul has shown us that you never give up.
Bill Black tells us that you never, ever, let the wood win.
The Editor – I think everyone would agree it looks great. Thanks Paul.

Covid-19 Update in case you missed it.

23rd September 2020.

The Federal Government has thrown in $123 million to a worldwide vaccine distribution alliance, in addition to the Oxford-AstraZeneca and University of Queensland deals.

Mr Hunt said the $123m investment into COVAX is "insurance".

"This provides us access to any of potentially dozens of other vaccines that may be successful," Mr Hunt said.

"That's good for Australia but it also means that people in developing nations will have access as well, and that helps protect the world."

Mr Hunt said involvement in a vaccine alliance was "the right humanitarian thing to do".

COVAX is an alliance led by the World Health Organisation, epidemic response group CEPI and the Vaccine Alliance of Governments and Organisations.

Trials of the Oxford vaccine have been paused twice after two participants developed what researchers admitted was "unexplained neurological symptoms".

In documentation, AstraZeneca has said its goal is a vaccine with 50 per cent effectiveness, the minimum threshold for FDA approval.

16th November 2020.

AstraZeneca now estimates it's vaccine will be 90% effective. The Australian Government estimates that it will be available by April 2021.

With Spring / Summer on the way Please be careful!

With the weather warming up many of us are spending even more time in our Workshops and the wood pile, and a rare few are also helping in the garden. So it is timely to refresh ourselves on Spider and Snake bites. I am going to confine this to animals that you might encounter in Sydney and its environs.

With the warmer weather all of us including spiders and snakes become more active. With an eye on safety a couple of things should be obvious. Firstly, wear good covered shoes in the workshop or garden. Secondly wear gloves when moving earth or piles of wood and timber. Remember, dark warm places are where spiders and snakes like to take refuge.

Normally these animals would rather get out of your way than confront you. However, if they are cornered, or you come upon them unexpectedly they may attack out of plain fright. You need to know what bit you, (if possible), and what to do about it.

SPIDERS:

Red Back AKA Black Widow

Red Back Spiders are fairly easy to identify. Their bite does not cause rapidly developing or life threatening effects, but many cause significant pain and other problems to your body. They are especially common in urbane areas. They build webs in dry sheltered sites such as among rocks, in sheds or around toilets.

Only the female's bite is dangerous. The female has an obvious red stripe on the abdomen. The male is not as obvious.

First Aid for spider bite:

- Ring 000
- Apply a pressure immobilisation bandage
- Keep the victim from moving around (See snake bite below).
- Keep the bitten limb down
- Bandage the limb from the area of the bite to the hand or foot, then back up to the body
- Immobilise the limb by splinting if possible (See snake bite below).
- Tell the victim to keep calm
- Do not move them at all
- Wait for the Ambulance

SNAKE BITE:

Average time to death is 12 hours. There are five genus (groups) of snakes that will harm us seriously: Browns, Blacks, Adders, Tigers and Taipans. All snake venom is made up of huge proteins (like egg white). When bitten, a snake injects some venom into the meat of your limb, (NOT into your Blood). The venom travels in a fluid transport system in your body called the lymphatic system (not the blood stream). Unlike blood, the lymph fluid does not move continuously. It only moves around with physical muscle movement like bending your arm, bending knees, wriggling fingers and toes etc. Lymph fluid becomes blood after these lymph vessels converge to form one of two large vessels (lymphatic trunks) which are connected to veins at the base of the neck.

When bitten, the venom has been injected into this lymph fluid (which makes up the bulk of the water in your tissues). The only way the venom can get into your blood stream is to be moved from the bite site in

Sydney Funnel Web

Note the female has much larger fangs than the male. If bitten by any large black spider it must be managed as a medical emergency.

Funnel webs are found in the highlands and eastern coastal areas of NSW.

They can survive for hours if they fall into a Swimming pool. If they become trapped in a house they can be quite aggressive.

The Funnel web is the most venomous spider in the world. The colour varies from black to brown. The bite is extremely painful.

the lymphatic vessels to the lymphatic trunks. The only way to do this is to physically move the limb that was bitten.

Stay still!! Venom can't move if the victim doesn't move. Stay still!!

Eastern Brown Snake

Responsible for most deaths in Australia
Average length is up to 2 meters with slender build
Very aggressive by nature
Not found in Tasmania

Red Belly Black Snake

Average length is 1.5 to 2 meters
Typically non aggressive, but can be defensive if provoked
Body temperature is regulated by shuttling between sunny and shady spots

Eastern Tiger Snake

Average length 0.9 to 1.2 meters
Naturally timid, instinctively retreats
It eat small mammals, birds and frogs
Also practices cannibalism

Death Adder Flattening

Average length is about 70cm
Quickest strike of any snake on the planet
Bears live young, between 3 to 20 in a single litter
Exceptionally long fangs between 6 to 8.5 mm long

First Aid for snake bite:

- Keep them still and ring 000
- Apply a bandage over the bite site to an area about 10cm above and below the bite
- Then using another elastic roller bandage, apply a firm wrap from Fingers/toes all the way to the armpit/groin. The tension should be about the tension of a sprain bandage.
- Splint the limb so the patient can't walk or bend the limb.

Do Nots:

Do not cut, incise or suck the venom

Do not EVER use a tourniquet

Don't remove the shirt or pants – just bandage over the top

Do not try to catch, kill or identify the snake. Polyvalent is a one shot antivenin for for all snakes.
Hospitals no longer stock specific Antivenins.

NORTHERN BEACHES.

Due to Covid-19 Northern Beaches has been closed. Currently they are still locked out of the RSL club facility.

However, there is good news. They have found a new home. They will eventually be moving into the old Forestville Girl Guides Hall. The hall is in Forestville Avenue, beside the Scout Hall, and near the RSL Club.

They report that they have signed a lease with the council. The council has to do about $200,000 worth of work. Gutters need to be replaced, Disabled Toilet needs to be installed as does a ramp along with other work. They hope to be in by Christmas 2020. They are also hoping for a regular grant from the Forestville RSL Club. They will be doing a demonstration for the RSL Club on 7 October. The Guild wishes them well in their new home.

BANKSTOWN REGION.

Bankstown has been having normal regular meetings with 8 to 9 members attending each day. Bankstown Council has advised that they are allowed up to 20 people in the hall. The group is doing well. They will have a demonstration from Drive Marine Services. They will be demonstrating the use of Epoxy fillers in Woodturning.
